HARDING WILL LET DAUGHTERY GO UNSCOLD

Stories Of Censure For Attorney General Upsets Presidential Party

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1923 by The Post Pub. Co.
St. Augustine, Fla. — The entire presidential party was visibly upset
today by the publication of a story that President Harding in effect disproved of the statement made by his close friend and political mentor, Attorney General Daugherty, announcing that the president would be a candidate for re-nomination in 1924. The story was published coincident with the arrival of the attorney general and members of the party began asking each other what was its inspiration, for they realized that if Mr.
Harding were to feel that the issue of the statement was a mistake he would be the last man in the world to let that fact get publicity. The president is said to have been distressed by the impression of disagreement between him and Mr. Daugherty which some published reports gave and it would not be surprising if in some way without commenting on the Miami statement about his candidacy
he gave public evidence of his continued confidence in the attorney general.

TICKLISH SITUATION

The president's view point on the wisdom of the statement about his candidacy has not been intensively discussed. It is true that a few callers outside of the presidential party have talked politics with him and at locals he is said to have commented on the impression the Daugherty announcement had created. Mr. Harding, however, realizes that any statement concerning his candidacy, no matter how carefully phrased, would be the subject of differing opinions, for no two strategists are apt to agree on

HANG UP 1,358 FOR NEW A. B. C. RECORD

By Associated Press
Milwaukee — A world's American Bowling Congress record in the double class of the present tournament was established today by a Milwaukee team—F. Wilson and C. Dawson—with a score of 1,358, the team landing in first place. Wilson rolled 200, 202 and 228—631 and Dawson 255, 219
and 245—727. The previous A. B. C. record for this event was bowled at Peoria, Ill., in 1917 when G. Satorus and W. Holzschuler scored 1,346.
Incidentally, Wilson and Dawson are members of the Nelson Mitchell five man team which hung up a new record in that event last night of 2,329.
H. Schultz and J. Mack, Detroit, took second place in the doubles with 1,806 pins. Schultz rolled 212, 204 and 218—634 and Mack 183, 224 and 259—672.

Milwaukee—Milwaukee and Brooklyn bowler broke into the list of leaders into the singles class of the American Bowling Congress tournament Friday, G. Neuman, Milwaukee, securing third place with 244, 218, and 254—716 while L. Marino of Brooklyn, N. Y., went into fifth position with 258, 241 and 210—709.

(Details of the new records established Thursday, the team events are published on the sports page.)

PULLMAN CO. BLACKSMITH SHOP DESTROYED BY FIRE

By Associated Press
Chicago — The blacksmith shop of the Pullman Co. manufacturers of railroad coaches, virtually was destroyed by fire early Friday at an estimated loss between $200,000 and $300,000.
Firemen were unable to extinguish the blaze, but were successful in preventing its spread to newly constructed coaches and nearby buildings.

Growing Rich Is No Trouble For Young J.D.

Standard Oil companies it is revealed by a calculation made by Dow, Jones & Co., from testimony given in the company's recent investigation of the oil industry.

The elder Rockefeller, founder of the Standard Oil group is not the owner of
as much as one per cent of the stock shows.

Six Dead, Many Hurt In Big Four Wreck

70 Miles An Hour Train Strikes Auto

By Associated Press
Columbus, O.—Six persons are known to have been killed, and many were injured, some seriously, when a fast Big Four Pullman train, enroute from Boston to Cincinnati, struck an automobile at a grade crossing at the north city limits Friday morning.
The train, one of the finest operating by the Big Four railroad between Boston and Cincinnati, was enroute from Cleveland to Columbus. The engineer was late and was racing his train at an estimated speed of 65 or 70 miles an hour when the accident happened.
Every available ambulance and doctor in the city was ordered rushed to the scene of the wreck. Early reports said that many were injured. The engine left the tracks and dived turned over in the ditch, four Pullman sleepers piling on top of it. All of the cars in the train with the exception of a dining car left the track.
The known dead are:
Horace Holbrook, Warren, Ohio,
publisher.
Earl W. Wilson, fireman, Columbus.
J. W. Klee, fireman, Columbus.
Mrs. Frank S. Hemminger, Columbus, wife of an attorney, who was driving the automobile that was struck.
Robert Hemminger, aged 5, her son.
Infant Hemminger.

ONE FIREMAN DEAD, FIFTEEN HURT IN N. Y.

Brick Bury Fighters As They Battle Flames Near Bellevue Hospital

New York—One fireman was killed and 15 others were injured Friday while fighting a blaze that destroyed
two factories and wrecked two floors of an adjoining tenement and business house. An explosion of escaping gas blew a tottering brick wall into the street and buried a score of firemen.
Julius V. Shanley was instantly killed and six others were badly hurt by the falling bricks. One fireman was burned while rescuing occupants of the blazing tenement.
Clouds of smoke poured past Bellevue hospital, a block and a half away,
and the nurses had difficulty in quieting hundreds of patients.

New York—At least one laborer was killed and a dozen more injured Friday when a five story building on Eldredge street collapsed, taking with it the roof of an adjoining five story building. Firemen dug out four workmen from the ruins and rushed them to a hospital.

DAWES NAMED COMPTROLLER OF CURRENCY

Prompt Selection Of Chief Means Early Formation
Of Corporations

St. Augustine, Fla.—Congress having moved just before adjournment
this month to assist to a greater degree the agricultural and livestock interests of the country, President Harding it was said Friday by members of his vacation party, is giving considerable attention to the farm situation.
The prompt selection of Henry M.
Dawes, Chicago, to be comptroller of the currency, which was announced Thursday night, although it had not been expected for several weeks, was interpreted by some of those close to the president to be an indication of his desire that the government render all possible aid to the farmers and livestock men. As comptroller of the currency, Mr. Dawes, who is a brother of Charles G. Dawes, a former comptroller and later budget director, will have supervision of the formation of the agricultural credit corporations provided for in the recently enacted Capper-Lea Root-Anderson bill.

Wealthy Girl Kills Man And Ends Own Life

By Associated Press
New York—Frederick W. Burnham, 44, a contractor, socially, financially and professionally prominent, died early Friday, the victim of a gun in the hands of Miss Helene Ziegler, 26, daughter of a well-to-do Riverside-family who killed herself after having mortally wounded Burnham in his office late Thursday.

The tragedy is believed to have followed the girl's discovery, after a ten year friendship with Burnham, that the contractor was married.

Miss Ziegler called at Burnham's office in the Grand Central terminal Thursday, but he was too busy to see her. She returned two hours later and gained access to the office, while a friend who accompanied her, Miss Ida Murphy, waited outside.

Miss Ziegler was inside 15 minutes when Mr. S. Cox, the employee who had admitted her, and Miss Murphy, heard two shots. Miss Murphy ran away and disappeared. Cox summoned W. E. Ames, Tankers, one of Burnham's superintendents, who had left the office a short time before.
They found Miss Ziegler dead, a pistol wound in her right temple. Burnham was shot in the right temple, but was still breathing. He died in Bellevue hospital without having regained consciousness.

RUSS REFUSE CLEMENCY TO BUTCHKAVITCH

Isolation Ordered For Head Of Roman Catholic Church
In Russia

By Associated Press
Moscow—The death sentence recently imposed upon Archbishop Zepliak, head of the Roman Catholic church in Russia, was commuted Friday to ten years imprisonment under strict isolation. The appeal of Vicar General Butchkavitch for clemency was denied.

The central executive committee, which met to consider requests for mitigation of the sentences, said in its decision that both prelates were deserving of the penalty imposed by the Moscow court, but that commutation was ordered in the case of the Archbishop because of the sentiment of the Catholic citizens. Russian might exploit the sentence as being directed against the priests and their religion.

The committee, said it regarded that the evidence in the case of Monsignor Butchkavitch, showed his direct treasonable connection with an agency of the state. The decision was signed by President Kallinin and Secretary Sapronoff.

"HANDS OFF," SAY REXDS.
The newspaper, Pravda says that in commuting the sentence of the archbishop the central executive commission is "complying only with the revolutionary conscience and the revolutionary warfare."

The newspaper adds that the same standard could not be applied to Monsignor Butchkavitch because he was the agent of the police government and carried on his activity, not because of religious fanaticism as did Archbishop Zepliak but in the interests of a foreign state. Both Pravda and Izvestia publish lengthy replies to the foreign protests against the sentencing of the Catholic prelates sounding a general warning:
"Hands off."

Archbishop Zepliak and Vicar Butchkavitch together with 15 Catholic priests, were found guilty by the Moscow court on Monday last of opposing the Soviet government. The sentence of death was imposed upon the Archbishop and the vicar general but a stay of execution was ordered by the central executive committee.
The other prisoners were sentenced to prison terms.

NEW BERLIN LOAN PROVES FIZZLE

By Associated Press
Berlin—Germany's floating debt increased by 1,455,000,000 marks in the second ten days of March. The total floating debt thereby reached 5,500,000,000 marks. The financial experts find little consolation in the announcement that only one quarter of the new $50-000,000 loan has been subscribed by the public. This leaves the banks with a deficit of 50,000 gold marks a responsibility which they are obliged to shoulder in view of their agreement with the government and the Reichs-banks.
Considerable doubt is expressed that the Reichsbank will be able to dispose of the unsubscribed balance of the loan.
It is recalled that when the government in the spring of 1918 offered the eighth war loan, individual citizens subscribed $4,750,500,000.

PRINCETON GLEE CLUB SERENADES WILSON HOME

Washington — The 8-st home of Woodrow Wilson was serenaded
Thursday by the Princeton University glee club while it was waiting between trains on its way to Hot Springs, Va., for an Easter concert. For a half hour the club rendered college songs, calculated to bring back memories of the days when the former president was the head of Princeton. As the finale they sang "Old Nassau."

Madison Coeds Vote For Later Hours At Night

By Associated Press
Madison—Coeds at the University of Wisconsin decided at a meeting of their self-government association
Thursday night, that present regulation governing the hours allotted for pleasure, should be liberalized.
They voted to extend the 10 o'clock privilege now in effect for mid week nights to all girls regardless of whether they attend dances or not.
The liberalized rules will go into effect after the spring recess.

Painters Trapped When Shop Is Afire

they extricated themselves with difficulty, Charles Marx, who operates a paint shop at 745 Appleton-st., and his helper, Jacob Moder, Thursday evening succeeded in calling the fire department and thus saving the automobile paint shop and three automobiles from total destruction by fire.
Albert Kreiss, who as former chief of the Appleton fire department, had helped extinguish many a fire, suffered through this fire a loss to his own property.

OSHKOSH RECTOR GRANTED DIVORCE

Expected Sensation Falls Short
In Todd Case As Papers Are Withdrawn

By Associated Press
Oshkosh—The Rev. Edwin Todd, rector of Trinity Episcopal church,
was granted a divorce Thursday at
"high noon" from Mrs. Jeanne M.
Todd, in County court. The decree was granted on an amended complaint alleging cruel and inhuman treatment consisting of "neglect and coldness."
There were no sensational features such as had been predicted when the suit was started, all papers except the summons and the amended complaint being withdrawn by agreement. There was no contest, the defendant being represented only by counsel, Leo P.
Nohl, Milwaukee and George E. Williams, Oshkosh.
E. J. Demme appeared for Mr.
Todd. A stipulation was filed as the final division of property consisting of the household effects all of which go to the defendant, except such as she may decide to leave with Mr. Todd.
The custody of the daughter, June, 11, is given to the mother with the right reserved to the plaintiff to visit her and have her visit him at reasonable times. The custody of the son,
Wednesday, 3, is given to the plaintiff.
Rev. Mr. Todd, with the right vested in the defendant to have said child with her at her home or place of abode in the city of Oshkosh or elsewhere for such period and at such times as defendant may desire.

QUEEN OF RUM RUNNERS IS LOST

By Associated Press
Highland, N. J.—The Queen of the Highlands, rum running fleet, was lost during the heavy northwest gale Wednesday.
The Queen ship, the largest and fastest pulling out of Highlands to the rum armada, off shore, was lost while making her second trip to the maritime liquor mart.

When she started for shore with 100 cases of liquor having an estimolated retail value of $7,500 she encountered a 48 mile gale which forced her to return to the Inter. a British steamer, which once served as a yacht for Robert Goelt, from which she had purchased her cargo.
The runner managed to come alongside the Inter and her waterlogged crew was taken off. The boat valued at $5,000 foundered with her cargo.
The Inter took care of the crew until the gale abated, then they were landed by a rum runner from New York.

DAHL PLANS TO CUT RATES AND PUSH OWN BILL

Three Separate Tax Bills May Make Way In Legislature Now

Madison—After a long conference with Robert M. La Follette, Jr., chairman of the Republican State Central committee, Speaker John L. Dahl, said that he would urge the legislature to consider his tax bill until the governor's measure had been disposed of.

By Associated Press
Madison—A revision downward of all rates in the Dahl general income tax bill was announced by Speaker John L. Dahl of the Wisconsin assembly Friday. In letting it be known he intended to push his revenue proposal in the legislature despite the governor's bill which he declares to be impracticable.

The Dahl bill is now moderate in tone with the rate on corporation income cut from 6 per cent to 4 1/2 per cent and the individual rate ranging from one to 10 per cent, instead of from 1 per cent to 20 per cent as formerly. The author declared.

Repeal of the personal property offset, and taxation of stock dividends as income are still contained in the proposal which would raise $12-000,000 annually under the revised schedule of rates. Complete revision of the measure was needed because of the marked improvement in business conditions, with attendant increased income, the speaker said. He explained that the full workings of the proposal as revised, were soon to be outlined by tables now being prepared.

Distribution of the income from the measure would be made on the basis of the 50 per cent to the state, 40 per cent to cities and 10 per cent to counties.

DIFFERS WITH BLAINE

"This would assure each local unit of government the same return. It now receives from income taxes and would increase the state share to $6,500,000 to take care of mill taxes repealed." Speaker Dahl declared.
In his essential regard it differs from Governor Blaine's bill, which would take a large proportion of their present receipts from income taxes from the cities and practically all from the counties. It also is simple and easily understood, in contrast to the highly theoretical and complicated plan suggested by the governor.
Senator Severson recently announced a reduction in his surtax bill. He has not abandoned hope for his measure with the result that there are now three separate general income tax proposals soon to be before the legislature.

SENATORS ASK SPRING VOTE ON RUM ISSUE

Liquor Bills Fare Badly In Hands Of Committee—Plan
Referendum In April

Madison—Liquor legislation fared badly at the hands of the state affairs committee of the senate Thursday night after a field day for consideration of eleven bills, all referring to the prohibition question. Out of it all will come a bill calling for a referendum on the direct issue of prohibition
at the April 1924 election, Senator W.
A. Titus, chairman of the committee announced.

Two measures providing to repeal of the Severe prohibition enforcement statute, one by Senator Gettelman, the other by Senator Polakowski, both of Milwaukee, were recommended for indefinite postponement with only Senator Gettelman dissenting.

The Czerwinski bill, repealing the search and seizure section of the Severe law, was recommended for killing by a 6 to 1 vote as was the Burke resolution, requesting congress to submit to the people a constitutional amendment repealing the prohibition amendment. Two bills by Senator Tootsdale, intended to strengthen the present law, were unanimously recommended for indefinite postponement.

Adoption was recommended for the Peterson resolution already adopted by the assembly, memorializing congress to redefine intoxicating liquors.
The vote on this was 4 to 3. A unianimous vote for passage was given a bill by Senator Gettelman, removing the $10 fee which physicians must now pay for permits to have alcohol.

FOSTER PLANNED TO REPLACE I. W. W. AT MINES

St. Joseph, Mich.—William Z. Fos-lism, last summer planned a radical union of copper miners at Butte and in the Minnesota and Michigan mines

Foster admitted on cross examination

Police Mistake Each Other; 3 Shot

By Associated Press
New York—A tragic victim of a policeman's zealousness on duty, Detective John Cordes was in a critical condition Friday in Presbyterian hospital with four bullets in his body while alongside him lay an 18 year old bandit, James Whitten, the cause of one of the most spectacular street gun fights here in years.

It was a case of two members of the force, arranged to each other,
one a detective, the other a police sergeant, both in plain clothes, and both of duty, who mistook his fellow worker for a bandit. The sergeant, James McDade, escaped unhurt.
Sergeant McDade and a woman companion were promiscuous when the policeman noticed two men whose appearance aroused his suspicion.
When they darted into a cigar store,
McDade watched them through the window.

He did not have a clear vision of the whole room. If he had, he would have seen the two step up to the counter to make a purchase. He did not see what Detective Cordes saw.
For the men "suspected" by McDade were Cordes and his brother, Harry.
Cordes saw three men, two of them fumbling near the store safe. He took them for bandits, so he drew his revolver and said "stick 'em up."

When Sergeant McDade saw Detective Cordes pull out his gun he thought he was a bandit and so he darted in and, standing behind Cordes, said,
"now you stick 'em up." Thinking McDade was the "outside man" of the burglars, Cordes wheeled to fire.
He met bullets from the bandits and from McDade. As he fell he grabbed the legs of one of the fleeing bandits and shot the other Whitten, in the abdomen. As Cordes lurched, McDade fired at the detective's brother, striking but not wounding him seriously.
The other bandit was caught by pedestrians.

BOMB CASE MAY GO TO JURY TODAY

Wisconsin Rapids—The fate of John Magnus, charged with the death of Mrs. James R. Chapman, receiver of the "gule bomb" was expected to be known by late Friday.
The case will go to the jury by either late Friday or Saturday, according to Judge Byron R. Park who has requested both the state and defense to cut as much as possible their final pleas to the jury.

Considerable interest is being evinced by the state in the outcome of the trial due to the presence of four women on the jury, believed to be the largest number of female jurors ever to sit on a murder case in Wisconsin court history.

WOMAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

TWO NEW AUTO LICENSE BILLS GO TO SOLONS

Compromise Measure Makes Minimum Fee $8—Both Urge Gasoline Tax

By Associated Press
Madison—Two new highway tax bills, both comprehensive in their scope, and both calling for three classes of taxes on automobile owners, were brought before the legislature Friday. The League of Wisconsin Municipalities and the Wisconsin County Board's association is back of one of the measures, and Assemblyman Robert Caldwell, Lodi, together with a number of other lower house members is sponsoring the second of them.

The county board bill, representing a compromise between various elements interested in the highway program, provides for a moderate graduated license fee based upon weight, varying from $8 to $24, with a highway privilege tax of 2 per cent in place of the present personal property tax, and a 2 per cent gasoline tax. This bill would raise $10,000,000.

WOULD RAISE $11,000,000
The Caldwell bill provides for the present $10 license fee to be continued in effect, with a 2 per cent highway privilege tax, half of which is to be distributed back to local communities in place of the present personal property tax, and a 2 cent gasoline tax. This bill would raise $11,000,000.

Under the compromise bill of the county boards and the League of Municipalities, the following license fee based upon weight is proposed:

| Weight in pounds                                                               | Fee  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| 1600                                                                           | $8  |
| 1600 to 2000                                                                   | $10 |

| All over 4800 are taxed $24 fee plus 50 cents for each additional 100 pounds. |      |

These fees would be distributed 55 per cent to the state and 45 per cent to counties in proportion to the amount the local collections bear to the whole for the state.

Motor trucks are taxed on the following basis:

| Weight in pounds                                                                    | Fee  |

| 1,000 to 2,100                                                                      | $20 |
| 2,100 to 2,500                                                                      | $25 |
| 2,500 pounds and over fee of $25 plus $5 for every 500 pounds or portion thereof. |      |

Of the truck fee, 75 per cent would go to the cities in which they are collected and 25 per cent to counties.

HARD ON BUSES
Motor bus fees are to be twice the truck fees.

The Caldwell bill would have a net $10 license fee on automobiles with a graduated fee on trucks, ranging from $10 on trucks of 1800 pounds or under, to $25, on trucks of 3,000 pounds with a $5 additional fee for each additional 500 pounds. A fee double the charge on trucks would be charged for motor buses.

DEFER PUBLISHING OF GUARD HISTORY

L. Harris, representing the Ralph Butler agency of Milwaukee which is soliciting advertising for the history of the national guard in Wisconsin, has gone back to Milwaukee to await developments of the plan for the history. Upon investigation by the chamber of commerce and Major Fred Hoffman of the national guard here, it was found that the history of the national guard is to be got out by the Butler agency sometime in the future, but the immediate publication as propaganda to offset the work of the present legislature has been given up.

After he had been notified by several business men in the city that Mr. Harris was soliciting advertising, Hugh C. Corbett, of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce learned the status of the proposition which had been considered fraudulent in other cities. Through conferences with Mr. Harris, Major Hoffman and over the long distance telephone with national guard authorities, Mr. Corbett was able to find out that while the history of the national guard has been planned for some time, it has not yet been dropped at least until after the present session of the legislature. Mr. Harris said that his Milwaukee office had not informed him of the discontinuance of the plan and took the first train to Milwaukee to investigate.

LITTLE CHUTE'S BIG NEED IS FOR FIRE PROTECTION

M. I. Parker Tells Voters Value Of Water Plant From That Angle

What a municipal waterworks system would mean in the way of fire protection, and the saving that would be possible in insurance rates were emphasized by Mr. I. Parker of the Wisconsin inspection bureau of Madison in an address at a mass meeting of voters at Little Chute village Thursday evening.

Mr. Parker's address was one of a series which are designed to educate the voters to the value of the water plant as proposed in the $120,000 bond issue which is to be voted upon at the election Tuesday.

The speaker said the surest means of reducing fire losses and preventing serious fires was through a municipal water system. The pumping plant would be able to furnish adequate pressure for most fires and in instances in emergencies, he said, this matter should be given serious consideration in communities that are growing like Little Chute does.

Part of the extra taxation that might result from establishment of a waterworks plant would be returned through insurance savings, Mr. Parker said. Insurance companies are obliged to charge a high rate where protection is not adequate and there is danger of heavy fire losses. He gave illustrations showing how premiums are reduced by fire insurance firms as soon as the chance of bad fires is minimized.

Sentiment appeared to be much in favor of the proposed water plant, inasmuch as the village is to issue bonds only to the amount of $50,000 at this time.

243 MILES AN HOUR WINS SPEED KING TITLE

By Associated Press
Dayton, O.—Lieutenant Lester J. Maitland, U. S. A., aviator winner of second place in the Pulitzer cup races at Detroit last fall, Friday will be declared holder of the world's airplane speed record, accomplished Thursday when he piloted a Curtiss racing plane over a one kilometer course four times at an average speed of approximately 243 miles an hour. The official speed will be announced later Friday.

Mr. Corbett was able to find out that while the history of the national guard has been planned for some time, it has not yet been dropped at least until after the present session of the legislature. Mr. Harris said that his Milwaukee office had not informed him of the discontinuance of the plan and took the first train to Milwaukee to investigate.

Here's Hope For Easter's Dress Parade

If you have no spring hat tucked away in its paper bag ready for Easter Sunday wear, hurry down town and buy one, or Easter will find you sadly drab and dismal. The weather man, the one who forecasts for the great valleys from Indiana westward to the Rocky mountain has gone into business with the milliners, and promises good weather for Sunday. By the way, if you have no Easter neckpiece, you had better buy that, too.

This is what the forecaster has to say: "The weather Sunday will be fair and not quite so cold." That came after predicting fair cold weather until Saturday night. It might be suggested that if you have a spring suit or coat to go with the Easter bonnet, that you wait until the next Sunday to spring it.

NATION WIDE SEARCH FAILS TO LOCATE MAN

By Associated Press
Milwaukee—A nationwide search for more than a month by Mrs. Pearl W. Cummings, for her husband, Joseph E. Cummings, 38, salesman here of a food concern here, failed to bring any trace of him. The last that was heard from him was a letter mailed before he boarded a train at Holland, Mich., in which he said he was leaving to try his fortune in the Texas oil fields. The missing man should be easy to recognize for his left hand has been amputated after the palm.

MAYOR BECOMES COP

By Associated Press
Reading, Tex.—Mayor John K. Stauffer is a firm believer in the old adage "the proof of the pudding is in the eating," and to prove his contention that 45 minutes was not too long a trick for traffic officers to work, he donned a uniform and for two hours directed at the coldest and busiest corner in the city. The day the chose was the coldest of the year.

The mayor recently reduced the periods of traffic officers from one hour to 45 minutes. The men then asked a further reduction at the time. After two hours' work, the mayor said: "This job, of course, isn't the most pleasant in cold weather, but it isn't half as bad as that of the night patrolman who pounds his beat continuously for 11 hours in all kinds of weather."

Pawtucket—Wage advances were granted by several Rhode Island Cotton and Woollen mills following similar action taken by mills in other New England states.

DRINK WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Pains or Bladder is Irritated

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day. Also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acid which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaker; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids; to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. adv.

RUSSIA OFFERS LAUSANNE PROBLEM

By Associated Press
Paris—The delicate problem has arisen whether Russia shall be invited to the Near Eastern conference when it is resumed at Lausanne next month. In the counter proposals made by Turkey she announced acceptance of the conference for the regulation of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus negotiated at Lausanne, so there obviously is no necessity of opening up again the question of the straits at the resumed Lausanne conference. Moreover, Foreign Minister Tchitcherine declined to sign the straits agreement for Russia, and as she had been invited merely for this deliberation the general opinion seems to be that nothing would be gained by inviting her for the forthcoming conference. Nevertheless, nothing has been officially decided as to this.

W. N. G. GOING TO CAMP DESPITE ANY LEGISLATIVE ACT

Congress Has Appropriated Money For Training At Camp Douglas

BY BASCOM N. TIMMONS
Washington—The war department has announced that plans for the field training of Wisconsin soldiers this summer will be decided upon and announced from the Sixth corps area at Chicago.

The Badger guard is expected to train at Camp Douglas but the Corps area commander must work out the plans for the training of Wisconsin reserve officers, members of the R. O. T. C. and citizens' military training camps.

At the militia bureau it was said that there would be no hitch, so far as the federal government is concerned, in the plans for the summer training of the Wisconsin National guard, whatever the attitude of the legislature finally turns out to be.

U. S. PAYS COST
The federal government, it was explained, pays practically all the cost of the field training of the national guard and congress has already appropriated the money. The thing that is worrying militia bureau officials most is the proposal to turn over to the state of Wisconsin. This will necessitate separate dealing with each municipality even if the municipalities keep the armories up. Heretofore, the militia bureau has been able to transact all its business with the state.

The war department said that the commander of the Sixth corps area may take the troops at his disposal and handle them in the way he thinks best to get the maximum amount of training for the minimum of cost. To accomplish the field training required by the war department each corps area commander will have at his disposal.

Troops of the regular army and graduates of military schools or groups of officers.

NEED 100 OFFICERS
Not more than 100 reserve officers selected for special fitness will be authorized for each corps to serve as instructors in citizens' military training camps. Approximately 50 per cent of all these officers will, if practicable, be officers who also hold commissions in the national guard, Par. 43, S. R. 43, being suspended in this regard. These reserve officers may be assembled for a period not exceeding fifteen days for instruction in preparation for their duties at the camp. Pay and mileage for them will be chargeable against the allotment of funds for the reserve. In the training program as outlined by the war department, one of the most important functions of the corps area commanders will be the citizens' military training camps.

The object of the citizens' military training camps is to bring together young men of the highest type from all sections of the country on a common basis of equality and under the most favorable conditions of outdoor life: to stimulate and promote citizenship, patriotism and Americanism and, through expert physical direction, athletic coaching and military training, to benefit the young men individually and bring them to realize their obligation to their country.

PASSOVER HOLIDAY BEGINS TOMORROW

Local Jewish People Will Carry Out Eight Days Of Ceremonies

Beginning at sundown Saturday Appleton Jews will begin the observance of Passover, an eight day holiday, in commemoration of the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt several thousand years ago.

Special services will be held in the temple the first and last days of the holidays. At Moses Montefiore temple a service will be held beginning 6 o'clock Saturday night, following which the members will continue the observance of the holiday with a ritualistic feast in their homes. Members of Zion temple will hold a supper at 6:30 in Castle hall. Services are also scheduled for Sunday morning and evening.

Passover, known in the synagog as Pesach, is one of the institutions of Judaism which has gained wide acceptance and joyous approval and is observed for a period of seven days by the more liberal, and eight by those more ritually inclined. The first and last days, however, have a special ritual observance in connection with temple service, the keynote of which is liberty and redemption from bondage. During the passover week all Jewish families do without leaven in any form, using instead a large, flat water-shaped bread called matzo. The first reminder of the hasty exodus of their fathers from the land of oppression, Egypt.

On this historical event, the feast of unleavened bread, as the Passover became in later periods, was built up. Originally an agricultural festival, it was later transformed into a festival symbolic of liberty and redemption when the Hebrews, who were slaves under Pharaoh, were led forth by the outstretched hand of providence from the thralldom of their bondage.

Mr. Weather Gets Another Black Mark

Appleton's many flower gardens probably will not have as many sweet peas this summer as usual. It always has been considered an omen among older people that if sweet peas are planted on Good Friday, the plants would prove highly prolific. However, as people looked out at their yards Friday morning they merely shook their heads and decided the only way to make garden now would be with the aid of dynamite to break the icy ground. There will be sweet peas of course, but they won't have the blessing of a sacred day.

WARNS MERCHANTS TO STUDY LABELS

City Sealer Tells Dealers To Be Sure Shelves Contain Pure Foods

A warning to dealers in foodstuffs to make sure that their shelves do not contain adulterated goods which are packed in violation of the Wisconsin pure food laws was issued Friday by Joseph Hodgins, city sealer of weights and measures. He advises merchants to read the labels on the cans and bottles and if the cans contain substances forbidden by law to ship them back to the manufacturer or jobber.

Mr. Hodgins said that dealers and merchants who have in their possession products which are in violation of the law are subject to arrest. Among the substances which are injurious to health and are prohibited by the state pure food laws are sulphur dioxide, benzoated soda, formaldehyde and boric acid fluorine compounds. Most of these substances are used as preservatives.

"As to artificial coloring, some are harmless and are not forbidden, while others are," Mr. Hodgins' statement said. "Whether they are harmless can be determined only by chemical analysis, which is up to the manufacturer or to the dealer."

"What I want to draw special attention to is that when you see on the label that the contents include food preservatives it is evident without analysis that such foodstuffs can not be sold. Look into the matter and if you have any goods in the store that come under the proscribed class pack them up and send them back in order to avoid any trouble."

OPEN OSHKOSH-RO IN COMING WEEK

The Neenah-Oshkosh highway will probably be opened by the latter part of next week. The announcement came from the office of the county highway commissioner at Oshkosh.

While it was realized that the road conditions were bad, it was not deemed wise by the commissioner to undertake the work while the weather was so uncertain.

Last spring after several days of work on the highway it was opened for about a day, when another storm made it impassable.

The Appleton-Menasha-Neenah road is now practically barren of snow and the pavement dry in most places.

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthio-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Menthio-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Howies Menthio-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.

3 PER CENT PAID ON CITY'S MONEY

Appleton Compares Favorably With Other Cities In Banking Survey

Of sixteen cities in Wisconsin included in a survey of municipal bank deposits made by C. M. Osborn, city manager of Kenosha, Wausau is one of the six cities receiving but two per cent or less on monthly balances of checking accounts.

The other ten cities receive up to three and one-half per cent on checking account balances. Three per cent is the rate paid to Wausau on time deposits, while some cities included in the survey receive up to four per cent on time deposits.

The rates on checking account balances is as follows: Superior, 1½ per cent; Green Bay, Racine, Oshkosh, Wausau, Kenosha, 2 per cent; Sheboygan, 2½ per cent; Madison, Fond du Lac, Eau Claire, La Crosse and Milwaukee, 3½ per cent; Janesville, Appleton and Manitowoc, 3 per cent; Beloit, 3½ per cent.

It is the policy here to distribute the deposits among all banks. In doing this as much money as possible is carried on time deposits which carries the maximum of interest. Other cities have followed a policy of letting the deposits on the basis of competitive bids.

The League of Wisconsin Municipalities is making a more thorough survey of the matter which will carry recommendations. It is further stated that some of the cities receiving high rates on daily balances have no other rate while Wausau has three per cent on time deposits. Other cities receive as low as two and one-half per cent on time deposits. Janesville, for example, which received three per cent on daily balances, has no other rate.

GOOD CAUSE FOR ALARM

Nothing so upsetting to politicians and to a federal administration has occurred in recent years as the recent rise in sugar prices. The political significance of this distressing event was immediately realized. It fell with special force upon the president and his cabinet because of the fact that the wholly justified outcry against the gouge was raised by an organization in which Senator LaFollette is a power and because of the further fact that at the next session of congress La Follette and a handful of his colleagues are likely to control the senate, as between the regular Republicans and the Democrats.

All of the investigating agencies of the government have been set in motion under a full head of steam. The department of justice, as the New York Times put it, is cranking up at a furious rate, the Federal Trade commission is trying to get in high gear and the department of commerce is away at high speed. On top of it all President Harding, at the inconvenience of forfeiting a game of golf or two, has ordered the tariff commission to make an inquiry. Thus we have four of the principal departments of the government worked up to a great pitch of excitement and in full pursuit of the elusive profiteers who have so wickedly boosted the price of sugar some three or four cents.

Not since the days of the Roosevelt trust busting has there been such activities at Washington. And all for what? Because every day the exorbitant price of sugar continues, and every cent that it advances, takes from the pockets of the American people hundreds of thousands of dollars in excessive profits to speculators. Every housewife and every man with a grocery account resents this levy of sugar tribute, even if it is only a few cents, and justly so. In the aggregate this dissatisfied becomes a formidably hostile force at election time, and it is not likely to be forgotten unless it is speedily terminated.

Is it the politicians or is it the profiteers who are really to blame? The answer to this is afforded by the little incident which took place in connection with the tariff making last year when a deal was undertaken by the high protectionists with the sugar producers of Cuba to limit the Cuban crop. When this could not be arranged, an excessive tariff on sugar was the alternative and it was adopted. This meant higher sugar prices the minute that it was done. The sugar interests may contend that it did not and they may furnish figures to prove their contention, but it is hardly possible that a low price level can be maintained on a commodity which this country must import in principal part when it must pay a substantial duty. There doubtless is an element of speculation in the present market, but the fundamental cause of higher sugar lies in the excessive duty placed on it. If it were not for that duty how long could a high price of sugar be maintained in the face of the fact that there is a material over-supply of sugar in the world markets?

The beet and cane sugar interests of the United States are entitled to a fair deal. They may be entitled to some protection, but we do not think they are entitled to the protection conferred by the Fordney-McCumber tariff act. If the administration wants to do something besides "investigating" the sugar gouge it will reduce the duty in half under the power conferred upon the president by the tariff act.

We think the excesses of the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill are likely to be quite thoroughly understood by the people before the next election. This measure was passed in the full knowledge that it invited a dangerous reaction, and if it comes it will be nobody's fault but that of the stand-pat politicians who were in control of congress when the tariff schedules were worked into law. The American Farm Bureau federation, for instance, has figured that the total benefits to the farmers of the country which can be attributed to protective duties under the new law will not exceed $125,000,000. It also estimates that the tariff will cost the farmers in what they pay out for commodities they have to buy an extra $426,000,000. If the Farm Bureau federation is correct here is a net cost to the farmers of the United States of $300,000,000 imposed by the Fordney-McCumber law. From this the farmer can himself figure out what he has to gain, and along with him the consumers at large who are today paying an excess price for sugar of from three to four cents.

THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY FOR THE FARM

As is well known, the assembly at Madison recently passed a bill introduced by Mr. Tucker, known as No. 28A, establishing the eight-hour day in the industrial field of Wisconsin and prohibiting men from working longer than eight hours, except in emergency.

It is not so well known, however, that the following amendment offered by Assemblyman Grandine was incorporated in the Tucker bill before its passage by the assembly:

Amend the bill by striking out all of lines 27, 28 and 29 of the printed bill, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "5. The department of markets shall ascertain the cost of production of farm products and in ascertaining such cost shall calculate labor on the basis of an eight hour day as defined in this section."

The significance of this amendment ought not to escape the attention of the farmers of Wisconsin. It is the opening wedge of a movement to extend the compulsory eight-hour day to the farm. An investigation of the subject, that is to ascertain the cost of producing farm products on an eight-hour day basis, such as the assembly has authorized, can only mean that the assembly has in mind the extension of the eight-hour day, with all its restrictions and inhibitions, to the farm.

The social radicals are in complete control of the assembly. Every bill of an extreme character from the abolition of the national guard down has been promptly passed by this body. It will be the aim of the social radicals to control the senate in the next legislature. They are very near to control there now, at least to the extent that much of the legislation they demand will be put through that body.

An assembly which passes such important measures as those wiping out the national guard, abolishing farm institutes, repealing drainage laws, etc., without even so much as a roll-call is not likely to pay much attention to economic reports. It will make little difference what the department of markets reports about farm production on the basis of the eight-hour day. If the social radicals controlled the legislature and took it into their heads to extend the eight-hour day to the farm, they would do so by acclamation. That they have this purpose in mind there can be no reasonable doubt. They are going to make Wisconsin a Utopia and to do that requires that they extend the compulsory eight-hour day to the agricultural industry.

Just as surely as the farmers continue to give their support to the farm-labor political alliance, just so surely may they expect the enactment of a law in Wisconsin in the near future that will forbid them to employ labor on their farms for more than eight hours in one day; in fact, that will prohibit men from working longer even if they desire, just as it is proposed to do by the present legislature in the field of manufacture.

THE HEALTH VALUE OF ASEPTIC TECHNIC

One great drawback about trying to teach health through a newspaper in homeopathic doses is that the class is forever changing, old pupils quitting, either in disgust or because they begin to apprehend they know about all the teacher pretends he knows, and new pupils joining the class day by day.

Let us explain to today's new pupils that aseptic means germ free, and aseptic technic is the method which the surgeon and the modern physician and his assistants use to prevent the spread of communicable disease. One of the vitally important differences between even the dependable kind of practical nurse who commands the indorsement of the physicians of her community, and the trained nurse is the latter's aseptic technic, which makes the trained nurse an indispensable factor in so many cases where, were it not for the grave consequences of infection, a practical nurse might serve very well, for instance, when an operation is to be done, or a compound fracture (a broken bone to which seems have possible access through a wound of the skin or mucous membrane) properly cared for or a family augmented. An aseptic technic sufficiently trustworthy for such work is quite beyond the capabilities of even the most intelligent and conscientious of practical nurses. It demands professional training.

Yet anybody with enough intelligence to try to keep flies away from food—nowadays many of us have moments of unease by reason of such intelligence, if not weeks of disease by reason of the neglect—may, without becoming at all finical, develop a personal aseptic technic which affords real security against chance infection with disease.

Remember that this aseptic technic means cleanliness as regards invisible "dirt," microbes, not the mere removal or avoidance of visible "dirt" which is often enough quite harmless. As I have suggested on other occasions some of our cleanest people (in the visible sense) are the dirtiest (in a sanitary sense). I hope that is quite clear, for it means much in reference to the aseptic conscience I am striving to arouse.

If the use of asepsis in the mouth or throat or nose conferred protection against infectious or germ diseases there would be no need to bother about personal asepsis. If the filling of the house or sick-room with any kind of vapor, smoke, gas or fumigant really prevented the spread of infectious diseases we might touch off some fireworks each night and morning and save ourselves all the labor of keeping clean.

A word to the soap manufacturers should be sufficient. I fear they have overlooked an opportunity to popularize soap. For a people who boast so much about bathing as we Americans do, we have a very low per capita soap consumption. For a people so fond of "sanitary" conditions we support a disgracefully large number of lunch rooms and other places where food is eaten but no adequate provision is made for the patron to wash his hands.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

I Said Blue For Girls

You were wrong in your assertion that blue is designated for girls and pink for boys. The colors are just the opposite. Evidently you have never heard of the pink lady and the blue boy. Hope you will correct yourself in future inquiries.

Answer—I still insist blue is the color for girls and pink for boys. Indeed, I know how a man feels when he receives the news.

The Martinet

At school when we are thirsty and ask permission to get a drink, the teacher tells us to choose between a drink and a demerit or no drink. Is that right?—S. Answer—No. Teacher probably assumes children should not want water. (Copyright, National Newspaper Service.)

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Friday, April 1, 1898

Mrs. A. J. Ingold entertained a group of ladies at tea in honor of Mrs. Sperry, wife of President Sperry of Olivet college, who was visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Fuller, Alton-st.

Miss Allie Waldo, who had charge of the toll lines at the telephone office, tendered her resignation and was succeeded by Miss Amy Redfield.

The Outagamie Mortgage-Loan company was organized at a meeting in the Albion block the night previous. The company was to be incorporated and was to have $20,000 capital stock. The temporary officers were: President, J. W. Cotter; vice president, Edward DeThier; secretary, Daniel McGill; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth McGill; auditor J. S. Perkins; attorney A. B. Whitman.

George Hoffman, formerly of Appleton, was killed by getting caught in a belt at the Strange papermill at Menasha the night previous.

Horses were continually receiving electric shocks while crossing the street car tracks on College-ave. As the result of a shock that nearly cost the animal its life, John Tierney's horse attempted to run away every time it was driven near the track.

The postoffice receipts for the year ending March 31, 1898, were $19,002.87, a gain of $1,237.77 over the previous year.

F. J. Harwood was to deliver an address at a meeting of the Christian Citizenship league at Fond du Lac.

TEN YEARS AGO

Friday, March 28, 1913

Attorney A. H. Krugmeyer closed a deal for the purchase of the E. E. Clark residence on Alton-st. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Freeman returned from an extended eastern visit.

Mrs. M. F. Mitchell of Fond du Lac, formerly of Appleton, called on friends here.

At least 25 papermills in the Miami valley were destroyed by the flood that for days devastated that entire district, according to George Hitchcock, traveling salesman for one of the felt concerns of Piqua, Ohio.

A double funeral was to be held from St. Mary church, Kaukauna, at 9 o'clock the day following for Mark Hayes and Barney Kobussen, the two young men who were drowned the previous Tuesday.

The public schools closed for the regular spring vacation of one week.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop J. J. Fox of Green Bay named St. Joseph church as the place of holding the ordination to the priesthood of Frank Knapp of Appleton who was to complete his studies at St. Francis theological seminary in June.

Man Finds Way To Beat Worms At Making Silk

Man has entered into active competition with the silkworm, and, although the worm has the advantage of several million generations of previous practice in the art of silk making, man is rapidly catching up. The output of artificial silk has increased fivefold during the last twenty years while the output of natural silk has only gained 50 per cent. More than a third of what seems silk to the eye comes from the factory instead of the cocoon. Some 40 million foreign feet are now increased in synthetic silk stockings made in America.

Artificial silk is not silk and should never be sold as such. But if it is, it is not so much because the salesman desires to deceive as it is because the public is unwilling to credit the chemist with the creation of something new or to believe that he can make anything so good as is made by a worm. Of late this unnatural prejudice in favor of Nature is being overcome and the new synthetic fibers are being marketed by their manufacturers as they should be under synthetic names. Some of the trade names are viscose, lustron, fiber silk, lustron-fiber, Givert silk, sole de Paris, Glanzstoff, artiseta, lustracellose.

There are four different modes of manufacture, but the raw material is essentially the same, cellulose. This is the substance of wood, paper and cotton, so it is cheap and abundant enough, but the difficulty is to dissolve it so it can be squirted out of the tiny holes in the spinnerette to form the fibers. Water will not dissolve paper pulp, of course, nor will any ordinary solvent except strong acids and alkalis.

The first person to solve the problem was a Frenchman, Count de Chardonnet, who, in 1884, deposited with the French academy of science a sealed document. Three years later this was opened and found to contain a method of making artificial fiber by treating cellulose with nitric acid. The resulting compound which is a mild form of gun-cotton, can be dissolved in alcohol and ether, like the common collodion that we use to cover our skinned knuckles. But the nitric had to be thoroughly eliminated from the yarn, otherwise it was too inflammable.

During the war a form of soluble cellulose found extensive employment as "seam" or dope for airplane wings. This is the acetate, made by dissolving cotton or wood pulp in the concentrated acid of vinegar, acetic. Lustron is made by this process.

The various kinds of artificial fibers differ from one another and all of them differ from natural silk. And in this difference lies their value. For fabrics can be woven out of natural and artificial silk and with cotton, or wool in any desired combination. The fabric at first may look white and uniform, but if it is dipped in baths of various dyes each thread will attach a particular tint and a complicated design brought out in color.

The artificial fibers and the coal-tar dyes make a brilliant combination and the aid of this alliance our world has become more colorful and cheerful. Sweaters and hose, neckties and underwear, have blossomed out in varied hue like the flowers that bloom in the spring.

The knitting machine has taken a new spurt and is now running a race with the loom. Our ladies now may wear synthetic lace that is shadowed by no thought of toilsome fingers and bent shoulders. They may wear synthetic fur without the sacrifice of wild life.

Man is no longer dependent upon what he can pick up in the plant or animal kingdoms for the new fiber can be made any form desired flat or round, smooth or rough, thick or thin, and of any length. A single filament may be run out thousands of yards without knot or break.

The man-made fiber is not so strong as the worm-made silk, especially when wet, but this has not interfered with its popularity so much as the fact that it is lacking in serop. The serop, as the sound of the word suggests, is the audible evidence of the presence of silk. What is the use of owning a silk petticoat if no body can hear it as you pass by? But science is overcoming even this obstacle.

Q. How can I estimate the number of tons of ice that can be cut on a pond? H. F. C.

A. It depends upon the thickness of the ice. When the ice is 8 inches thick, it will take 125 cakes 22x22 inches to make a ton. This is 52.6 square feet of cutting space. If the ice is only four inches thick, it will take 105.6 square feet to yield a ton of ice. There will be 31.3 cakes.

Farm Melting Pot Dinner Is Served Editors

Dinner from the agricultural melting pot was served by the office of home economics of the United States department of agriculture at Washington to members of the American Agricultural Editors' Association who met in that city recently. Americanized samples of foreign families of foodstuffs formed a large part of the meal, while diversity was furnished by some interesting hybrids.

For example, the feast began with tangelos, better known as "the squirts," although it is only half grapefruit, being a cross between that snappy and sometimes explosive preliminary to a good meal, and the well known tangerine. It combines the sprightly flavor of the grapefruit with the high color and thin skin of the tangerine and is said to be quite free from explosive properties.

One of the principal vegetables served was the dasheen, a subtropical immigrant to our southern states. It is a root crop, resembling a potato, but drier and containing more food material.

Bread and cake were made from Kota wheat, a Russian immigrant now cultivated in the Dakotas. It is a hard spring wheat, noted for its resistance to black stem rust.

A native American family hitherto somewhat neglected was a guest at the feast, Cassia, which is coming to be used as substitute for tea. It is a native wild shrub of the South Atlantic Coast and was used to some extent by the Indians and by the people of the South during the Civil War. It is now being cultivated commercially since a process for curing the leaves has been developed by the bureau of chemistry.

A man was driving along through the mud, making heavy going of it, when he noticed a hat in the road before him. He got out, and sinking his knees in the ooze, picked up the hat. Under it was a man's head, and in spite of his predicament the man seemed very much alive.

Hearers Of Choir Are Held In Awe

Persons At Oshkosh Concert Say Fame Of St. Olaf Singers Is Fact

People who have never been awestruck at a musical program will have that experience Monday evening when St. Olaf Lutheran choir sings at Lawrence Memorial church, according to the statements of several Appleton persons who heard the program of the vested student singers at Oshkosh this week.

It is said to be almost unbelievable that Dr. F. Melius Christiansen could take 62 young people out of St. Olaf college at Northfield, Minn., and convert them into singers whose harmony is so near genuine perfection. Hearers of the great sacred masterpieces on the program say they thought the vocalizing listening to the strains of a great organ rather than human voice. The word that is being spread through Appleton is, "Don't miss this concert."

The choir passed through Appleton on its way to Oshkosh and now is in the eastern part of the state. The singers are to arrive here Monday afternoon. There are 62 in the chorus, 40 young women and 22 men.

M. E. CHURCH TO HOLD COMMUNION TONIGHT

The annual Good Friday communion service of First Methodist church will be held at 7:30 Friday evening. The text for the sermon is "It is Finished," John 19:30. Just before communion is taken Carl McKee will sing "God My Father," from "Seven Last Words of Christ" by Dubois.

The Good Friday communion is always silent and after partaking of it the congregation leaves the church without speaking. The Methodist communion is an open one and anyone of any faith may partake of it.

MISS AUSTIN TO SING AT SERVICES

Sacramental Service Beautifully Carried Out At Congregational Church

Miss Margaret Austin will be the soloist at the Good Friday service of the First Congregational church at 7:30 Friday evening. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. C. Wilbur Cross, associate pastor. His subject will be "The Way of the Cross."

Approximately 500 persons attended the sacramental service of the church Thursday evening. Dr. H. E. Peabody read the scripture passages of the scenes preceding the crucifixion and communion was served at the points where this was mentioned in the Bible story. Two devotional solos were sung by Marian Ramsay Waterman. The audience passed out in silence at the close while the organ played, "The Midnight on Olive's Brow."

Three persons were baptized and about 15 others had their baptism confirmed in preparation for becoming members of the church on Easter Sunday.

Soft lighting effects were carried out in the auditorium. An Easter lily in front of the pulpit stood out in contrast through its illumination by footlights.

NEW BLOUSES

The day when a blouse was a shirt-waist is gone forever. If there were any doubt about this fashion metamorphosis the new spring blouses would settle the question. Overblouse styles every one of them, except out-and-out sport models. They glitter with metallic embroidery and blaze with all the colors of the spectrum. Most of them are full bloused styles caught low on the hips with wide belts.

Egypt, Persia, India, Japan and China have contributed brilliant designs to the silks and cottons of which they are made.

Mahogany Is Favorite Wood In Many Homes

The quiet dignity of mahogany for living room or dining room can not be excelled and for this reason one can find any number of useful articles in this attractive wood.

Colonial candlesticks are becoming more and more varied. Those with the etched glass shades are especially good. Wall sconces of mahogany for candles can be bought separately and used with candles or wired for electricity.

To match the nut bowls of mahogany with the permanent anvil in the center comes a fruit dish rounded from the wood with slits in one side, into which a half dozen fruit knives may be slipped.

Crumb scraper and tray from mahogany will fit in with the dining room fixings better than those of brass or nickel.

Another dining-room accessory which may well be used in living room, too, is a tilt-top table which is in reality a glass-bottomed mahogany tray. When the top is laid flat and locked with a small brass underneath, the handles may be grasped and the whole table, stand and all, may be lifted like a tray and set down wherever desired. In a small apartment, where both the buffet and serving table are impossible, such a tray table would substitute beautifully instead of a serving table.

The Japanese going to summon to meals may now be hid in a small mahogany closet with doors that spring open. The gong can then be hung in hall or dining room without fear of its clashing with other furniture, for mahogany will blend with anything, that, perhaps is the secret of its popularity.

Desk sets of mahogany for the table desk of the same wood are lovely. The corner of thin mahogany may be slipped on, or an entire pad of the wood with polished corners may receive the colored blotters, inkpot, blotter, penwiper and stamp box match the rest of the fixings.

Mrs. Herbert Woelz submitted to an operation at St. Elizabeth hospital Thursday.

Miss Ethel Reichert is seriously ill at her home at 1005 College-ave.

The Dancing Season will open at Stevensville with an Easter Dance at the Stevensville Auditorium on Easter Monday, April 2nd. Music by Park's Orchestra of Iowa.

Women Prepare For Fight At League Meeting

Washington—The fanciest feminist fight staged since women won the vote will, it is predicted in inside suffrage circles, develop at the annual convention of the League of Women Voters at Des Moines April 9-14. Chief bones of contention will be:

1—Whether to maintain aggressively the line of cleavage that has separated the suffrage activities of the league from those of the National Woman's Party.

2—Whether to give official organization sanction to the League of Nations.

3—What part of the organization shall play in the movement for international co-operation to prevent war.

4—Whether the organization shall hereafter specifically endorse candidates for public office.

In addition to these issues, concerning which there already is much palpitation in league circles, there seems certain to develop a fine factional fight over the election of the seven regional directors. In addition to the regional directors, however, there are also to be elected two vice presidents and a treasurer. Mrs. Maud Wood Park, president, holds office for one more year.

CANDIDATES "CHOSEN"

An official "state" of "approved" candidates will be presented to the convention by Miss Esther Ogden of New York, chairman of the nominating committee. Miss Ogden's feeling for Democratic policies is declared to be strong. She was vice chairman of the woman's bureau at Democratic national headquarters during the 1920 campaign.

If the slate to be presented by this committee is put through, it is predicted an entirely new element in the league will be brought in prominence and the majority of the old-time controlling heads in the organization shunted onto a sidetrack.

If this is effected, it is likely the organization's work will be turned energetically toward certain heretofore controversial questions involving educating women for citizenship, stimulating them to get out and vote and emphasizing more directly the practical rather than the merely theoretical side of suffrage.

Whether this can be accomplished, however, is a question. Almost every state league has at least one candidate to propose and each state delegation will land in Des Moines ready to battle for its own favorite.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin B. Carey have returned from a several weeks' visit at Rochester, Minn.

SUNRISE SERVICES TO BE HELD ON EASTER DAY

Easter sunrise services will be conducted at 6 o'clock Sunday morning in First English Lutheran church. "The Stone Rolled Away" will be the theme of the talk by the pastor.

WOMEN SHOULD ACT QUICKLY

When a woman finds herself afflicted with backache, headaches, nervousness dragging-down pains, pain in her side, irregularities and irritability, dark circles appear under the eyes and her complexion gets sallow, she may be sure the underlying cause is some ailment peculiar to her sex. Such women should act quickly and take the great American remedy for such conditions, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they may be saved years of suffering. For generations this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring ailing women to health, and it may be relied upon with perfect confidence.

SEYMOUR C. OF C. PROTESTS AGAINST TWO LABOR BILLS

Believes Limiting Of Hours Of Work Detrimental To Farm Interests

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Seymour—At a meeting of the chapter of Commerce Tuesday night, committee of three, C. J. Jackson, Ralph Davis and Leo Kahnt, was appointed to send letters to Senator Anton Kuusk asking him to work on bills 206A and 25A before the legislature. These bills affect the employment of labor, limiting the hours of work. Many of the members of the chapter of commerce are farmers or former farmers and they see in an 8-hour day a detriment to agricultural and dairying interests, as it will mean the employment of more at higher wages, thus raising the costs of doing business.

Kaukauna—Fond du Lac police are looking for Clyde Anderson who is wanted for check forgery. ## GASOLINE TAX IS MAIN LAW TALKED IN MANY STATES

Myriad Laws Aimed At Automobile But Few Help Curb Conditions

More than a quarter century after the production of the first automobile, laws are still being considered to regulate it, tax it, curb it and—rarely—help it.

In California alone, the present session of the Legislature is considering 78 bills more or less directly concerned with the automobile. One bill out of every five presented to the Illinois Legislature is an auto measure. Ohio representatives are swamped with auto bills, and so it goes in practically every state in the union. Most of the bills being considered in the various states may be listed under these five subjects:

1. Gasoline tax.
2. Truck weight limitation.
3. Compulsory insurance.
4. Laws governing accessories.
5. Speed regulation.

GAS TAX FAVORITE

The most popular class is the first. There is hardly a state which has not already passed, or is considering, a gasoline tax. And this in spite of the fact that a federal injunction has been drawn against collection of the tax in Arkansas and that the Supreme Court is considering its validity. California, in fact, has two bills that would levy taxes on motor vehicle tires as well.

Bills to limit the weight of trucks are intended not so much for taxation purposes as for the maintenance of highways. Heavy fines are proposed for overweight vehicles. In Texas, if one bill became law, a truck owner would have to pay duty based on the engine horsepower and weight of the truck, so that a 50-horsepower vehicle weighing five tons would be taxed $525.

Compulsory insurance is gaining headway throughout the country. The law proposed in Massachusetts seems fair and is favored by the motor clubs. By it the state would charge every motorist $10 a year and insure him for $5000. That would furnish more than $4,000,000, as an insurance fund to start with.

ACCESSORY BOOSTERS

Auto clubs are denouncing the various "accessory bills" proposed in the state Legislatures. Such, for instance, as requiring a mechanical signal to show which way the autoist intends to turn, or one requiring a radiator cap attachment showing a green light to the left and a red light to the right of the driver. This is one of the freak bills proposed in Illinois.

Speed regulations are still the bugaboo of autoists. While, in some states, bills would raise the speed limit from 20 to 35 miles an hour on state highways, another would limit it to 25 miles and make a jail sentence mandatory if a driver is convicted of exceeding this limit. Another bill would require the installation of a governor on each engine to control the car's speed.

Besides, there are all sorts of unclassified bills. A Californian, for example, would make speed traps illegal. Another would require thumb prints on each operator's license. In Illinois, the license and engine numbers of every auto taken into a garage would have to be recorded, if one bill became law.

These give you an idea of the scattered array of bills before the state Legislatures at present.

Tell Legion Your Wishes For July 4th

What kind of celebration do you like best for Independence day, July 4?

That is the question Oney Johnston post of the American Legion is asking the people of this locality as preparations are begun for the observance of that day in a fitting manner.

The post will stage anything within reason from a peanut race to a fireworks spectacle if the people will make their desires known.

Some of the things which have been suggested are parades, military drills, baseball game, prize fight, races, fire run, picnic, pavement dance and others, but the wishes of the majority cannot be judged from these suggestions.

Every person in Appleton who is interested in a lively celebration is asked to contribute his ideas. Write them in a brief letter or on a postal card and mail them to the Contest Editor of the Post-Crescent or deliver your message at the office. All these requests will then be submitted to the proper committee.

M'ARTHUR GAINS HIGH NAVAL POST

Wisconsin Youth Commands Ship Bearing Congressional Party South

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Washington—When the U. S. S. Henderson, took the congressional party to the canal area to watch the fleet maneuvers as the guests of Secretary Denby, the vessel was in charge of Capt. Arthur McArthur, of Wisconsin.

McArthur is the son of Lieut. Gen. McArthur of Spanish war fame. He is a brother of Brig. Gen. Douglas McArthur, stationed in the Philippines, but now in Washington for a brief visit.

Capt. McArthur has had a brilliant record, but it is doubtful if he ever commanded so distinguished a crew as he is now to bring back from Panama. Senators and representatives out for a real vacation insisted upon serving as members of the crew. Representative Albert S. Johnson, Washington, who is chairman of the house immigration committee, proved the champion deck scrubber.

Baldridge, contralto; Mrs. Robert E. King, soprano; Bertram S. Webber, and Richard Kountz, accompanists; Francis Cooper, piano; Marie Kley-ja, violin.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea And Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

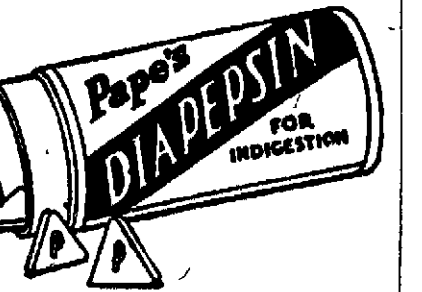

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally, even to the point where it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

PAGEANT DEPICTS SCENES AT TOMB

Church Drama Sunday Night Will Unfold Events Of Past Centuries

Centuries will turn backward and the scenes of Christ's last days on earth will be lived over again in the pageant, "The Dawning," which is to be presented at 7:30 Sunday evening at the First Congregational church by pupils of the senior department of the Sunday school.

The audience will be like onlookers at the gate of Jerusalem, with the tomb of Jesus at the right. The disciples will be shown at the tomb, and the arrival of the weeping women will be pictured.

The first scene takes place on the morning of the resurrection and shows the events that occurred and the effect they had upon the Roman soldiers and those at the sepulcher.

In the second scene the day following, the Roman centurion, the women and the disciples all are convinced of the resurrection except "doubting" Thomas. A happy feature will be the part taken by the Jerusalem children, who tell of the joyous times they had with Jesus. They are to sing their hosannas.

The last scene is the day of ascension and closes with a recessional of the characters singing, "Onward, Christian Soldiers." An invisible choir supports those who have musical parts in the play.

Too Much of a Good Thing

"It is six years since I had my first stomach trouble. It rapidly grew worse. My food would not digest and I was reduced to skin and bone. My doctor put me on a starvation diet, and when my pains grew worse I concluded it was too much of a good thing. On the advice of my druggist I tried May's Wonderful Remedy, and am now entirely well." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. ## 486 BADGERS ARE ENTITLED TO JOBS AT WASHINGTON

State's Quota In Civil Service Is Only About Half Fulfilled

BY BASCOM N. TIMMONS

Washington — "Wanted: Four hundred and eighty-six Badgers to accept jobs in the departments at Washington, D. C. Good education for a year or two, but a deadly rut if you stick. Salary from $600 to $8,000 a year. Apply: Uncle Sam, care Civil Service Commission."

No such ad is going to appear in any newspaper, but the jobs are available just the same, it is said by the civil service commission.

There are now 475 Wisconsin people employed in the various departments of the federal government here. Wisconsin is entitled to have 961. It is, therefore, short 486 of its quota.

Oklahoma, Arkansas, California, Texas and Louisiana, in the order named, the commission said, are further from their quotas than any other states. On the other hand, Rhode Island, Delaware, Vermont, Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia have in excess of their quota.

The District of Columbia has grabbed most of the jobs. Under the law the district is entitled to only 159 employees in the federal departments. It actually has 1,128 of its residents so employed. But, under the law, if the states desire to fill their quotas, then the district of Columbia residents will be dropped.

Forty-three states and three territories are behind their quotas for employees in departments at Washington. Five states and the District of Columbia are over their quotas.

There seems little likelihood that the departments in Washington will ever get back to their prewar basis. There were June 30, 1918 a total of 39,443 Civil Service employees in the departments here. There are now, more than four years after the armistice, a total of 67,320 such employees, or nearly double the prewar figure.

The greatest number of federal employees in Washington at one time was on November 11, 1923, the date of the armistice—117,760.

The Wilson administration managed to lop off 28,985 of these, bringing the number down to 78,865. The Harding administration has succeeded in cutting off 11,645 more, bringing the present number down to 67,220.

C. OF C. WILL ASK WHAT CITY NEEDS

Members Who Did Not Attend Group Meetings To Receive Questionnaire

Questionnaires concerning the projects of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce will be mailed this week to those members who were not present at any of the group meetings. Final results of the meetings will then be published showing the relative importance of the various projects in the city.

The final meetings on Thursday evening took up the discussion of the community building and only touched lightly upon the other subjects. As a result of the discussions, the group meetings, C. E. Young, who has organized them, feels that the junior high schools, garbage disposal, community building and street markings are the things which seem most paramount in the minds of the people. The results of the questionnaire will show the importance of other projects.

Reports of the cleanup squad for the closing of the membership drive have not been completed. These reports will give the final figures on the drive, but memberships are received at any time by the chamber of commerce.

Repair Roofs

While the mercury was down far Thursday, two farmers were up considerably high while engaged in shingling roofs. The cold winter weather was no barrier to the work of August Schroeder of Greenville, who was re-shingling the roof of his barn, and George Schuch, who reshingled the roof of his house.

The other day a friend of mine did a good turn by helping a stalled milk truck get to a garage. The very next day he happened to be stuck in a large snow drift on Mackville road when the same milk truck came along and passed his car. It got but a few yards ahead when the truck, too, got stalled. They immediately got out of the truck and shoveled themselves out and while the other fellow was doing his best to get his car to move they went back into the truck drove away.

ROAD PROBLEM IS WORST EVER NOW

Neither Sleighs Nor Autos Can Be Used To Advantage By Carriers

Rural mail service is now back to normal, as far as completeness of delivery is concerned, but the carriers are probably facing the worst roads of the season because of the snow drifts and barepots on them.

Automobile delivery is still out of the question on account of the high drifts and blocked roads, and every day sleighing is becoming more laborious as the bare strips are gradually becoming longer.

In some instances parts of roads have been blocked for nearly seven weeks, making it necessary for the carriers to drive behind barns and over fields where an automobile could make no headway. Sleighing is slow and tedious where the ground is bare. Unless the snowbound roads are soon opened for automobile traffic, it appears doubtful whether rural patrons will have any service at all.

Patrons look for their mail every day, regardless of the severity of the weather or the condition of the roads. But they can do much to improve the service by removing the obstacles that have not only delayed mail but at times cut it off entirely, postal authorities say.

Gulbransen Player-Piano

If you are prejudiced against the mechanical-sounding player-piano, you should hear the Gulbransen. You will quickly realize that it is possible to produce an instrument that can duplicate hand playing.

In creating the Gulbransen the manufacturer has done what others have always strived to do. He has made a player piano that gives no indication that its music is produced by other than human touch. This, perhaps, accounts for the fact that in a few years the Gulbransen has become decidedly the leader in its field, the fastest selling, most popular player piano.

THE WINDS OF DEATH

BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

"Personally," was the confident reply. "I don't think there is the slightest doubt but that he is the man who has passed at different times as Thomas Pugsley, James Stanfield and originally Michael Sayers. He has vanished from the face of the earth, so far as New York police has ascertained; but they obtained possession of an uncompleted letter which he must have been typing at the time of the raid. The first page he probably destroyed or took with him. The second refers to you. Here is a copy."

Rimington withdrew from his pocketbook a halfsheet of paper and passed it to me. I read it slowly, word for word:

"Things here have come to their natural end. The last fortnight has been productive, but there is danger in any further prosecution of our energies. There is only one man who stands in the way of my return to London. You know well of whom I speak. I wait day by day for your news of him, and hope to hear of no more blunders. See that the woman you know of, too, is carefully watched. She may be as loyal as she seems, but there are moments when I have my doubts. If she can be disposed of, I am very interested," I remarked. "Very! To whom was the letter addressed?"

"To a firm of leather-brokers in Remondsey," Rimington replied, "and it was written on the notepaper of a firm of hide-brokers in New York."

"The letter is from our friend, right enough," I decided. "There have been two attempts upon my life within the last two days, and I have just sent away a secretary who was keeping a careful note of my doings."

"We talked for an hour or more, and arrived without difficulty at a mutual understanding. Rimington undertook to send a good man down from Scotland Yard to make inquiries in the neighborhood, and he promised also to trace my late secretary's antecedents through the office from which she had come. In the meantime he begged me to return to London with him. The suggestion was not at first altogether attractive to me."

"I don't like being driven away from my own home," I grumbled. "Besides, there will be nothing for me to do in London at this time of the year." "Greaves," he said earnestly, "listen to me: You can play golf round London, and get on with your book. You are far safer there than you would be in an unprotected neighborhood like this. But apart from that altogether, we want you up there. This crime wave in New York has ceased. Paris, too, is quieter. The Chief is profoundly impressed with the belief that it is because operations are being transferred to London."

"When do you want me to come?" I asked.

"Back with me tonight," he answered promptly.

I had told Rimington of all the material things which had happened to me down at Greaves Manor, but I had not spoken of that curious sense of impending evil which had clouded my days, and the presence of which had been so remarkably verified. We were scarcely crossing the first stretch of Exmoor, however, when the memory of it came back to me, and with the memory overpowering return of the feeling itself. I filled a pipe, stretched myself in a corner, and got myself to fight this grim ogre of fear.

It was no easy matter, however. All through the night I was haunted with fancies. The gorse-bushes on the moors seemed like crouching men; the whistle from a distant railway station a warning of impending danger. In a small village before we arrived at Taunton, a man stood in the open doorway of his house, looking out at the night. We scanned us as we passed, and turned away. Through the uncurtained window of his sitting-room I saw a telephone at his table.

At Wivelstoke a man with a motorcycle stood silent as we passed. He leaned forward as though to see the number of our car. In ten minutes he had passed us, his powerful engine making the night hideous with its unalloyed explosions. Across Salisbury Plain, as we drew near Stonehenge, a cruelly cold wind was blowing. We drank from a flask, which I had brought, and wrapped ourselves up a little closer. At some crossroads, high up in the bleak part, another car was waiting, its light out, its appearance sinister. We passed it, however, at fifty miles an hour, and the man who was its sole occupant scarcely looked at us.

We passed through Amesbury, up the long rise to Andover, through Basingstoke, and settled down into a fifty miles an hour, along wonderful roads. The moon was paling now, and there were signs of dawn; right ahead of us was a thin streak of silver in the clouds, slowly changing to a dull purple. Before we had realized it, we were in the outskirts of London, our pace gradually reduced, but still racing through the somber twilight.

At Isleworth, just as we had passed under the railway arch, I felt the brakes applied and thrust my head out of the window. We had come almost to a standstill, stopped by a stalwart policeman who, notebook in hand, had been talking to the occupant of a touring car drawn up by the side of the road. He came up to the open window.

"Are you gentlemen going through to London?" he inquired.

"We are," I told him. "What can we do for you?"

The words had scarcely left my lips when I knew that we were in a trap. I realized it just in time to save my life. I struck with all my force at the ugly little black revolver which was thrust almost into my face. There was a report, a sharp pain at the top of my shoulder, and the revolver itself slipped from the man's crushed fingers. I was within an ace of having him by the throat, but he just eluded me. The touring car was now passing us slowly, and he leaped into it, leaving his helmet lying in the road. A third man seemed to rise up from under the car, tore along and jumped in behind, and they shot forward, traveling at a most astonishing pace.

Rimington shouted to our chauffeur through the tube with the idea of pursuing them. We started forward with a series of horrible bumps, and came almost immediately to a standstill. I sprang out. Both our back tires had been stabbed through with some sharp instrument. In the distance, the other car had rounded the corner, and with screaming siren, was racing away for London.

JANET TAKES UP THE STORY:

It was toward the middle of October when I heard from my husband for the first time in many months. For a long time my luck had been atrocious. I lost the greater part of the money paid me for the recovery of Mrs. Trumpington-Smith's diamonds, by an investment in a small military business which I discovered, too late, to be already moribund. I had lost post after post for the same maddening reason. My looks had suffered through privation, and my shabby clothes were unbecomingly enough; but if I had been Helen of Troy herself, I could scarce have evoked more proposals of the sort which must bring to an end ordinary relations between employer and employee. My good resolutions began to weaken. I had almost made up my mind to appeal for help in quarters which would necessarily have meant the end of my more or less honest life, when one morning a young man who looked like a bank clerk was ushered into my bed-sitting room. It was folding up a coat which I was going to take to the pawnbroker. I was not in a very pleasant frame of mind, and I was furious with my landlady.

"What do you want?" I asked coldly. "This is not a room in which I can receive visitors."

"My visit is one of business, madam," he answered. "Are you Mrs. Janet Stanfield?"

"I am generally known by that name," I replied.

He opened his pocketbook and counted out two hundred pounds in bank notes upon the table. I watched him spellbound.

"With the compliments of the bank manager," he said as he took up his hat and turned away.

"Who sent the notes?" I called out after him. "What bank is it from?"

"The bank of faith, hope and charity," he answered with a smile. "Good morning!"

He was gone before I could get out so much as another word. I took up the notes greedily. I had done my best to live without my husband's help ever since news as to his doings in America had reached me. For some reason which I did not myself altogether understand, I had, I thought, cut myself off from any association with him and his friends. Yet in my present straits my attempts at independence seemed hopeless. The money was a necessity to me.

I paid my landlady, and made her a present of my dilapidated wardrobe. I possessed the art of knowing how and where to buy things, and before lunch time that day I was installed in a small flat in Albemarle Street wearing clothes which were in keeping with my surroundings and with an evening dress and cloak in reserve. My neck and throat and fingers were bare, for I had seen nothing of my jewelry since our ill-omened adventure in Paris.

Rejects Big Pay To Take Care Of Home

BY ROY GIBBONS
Chicago—Mrs. Florence Schee Robnett of this city could go out any day and command a tidy salary; running into five figures.

But Mrs. Robnett has turned down many a tempting offer—to bake cakes for her husband!

During the war Mrs. Robnett achieved nation-wide prominence by her phenomenal success as manager of the employment department of the Illinois woman's committee, Council of National Defense. She could size up the attitude of an applicant for a job almost at a glance and fit the round pegs into the round holes.

Her psychological tests for applicants have become so successful and noted among big business men that they conferred on her the title of "Go Getter."

But Mrs. Robnett is through. "Happiness," she affirms, "is the supreme achievement in life. I have found mine in my home."

"Carrying water on both shoulders—that is, caring for a home and business, both—seems to me too big a problem for any woman to tackle and do justice to each."

And who, do you think, is happier in the Robnett family? Hubby, of course.

"Boy, say I'm not glad," he smiles. "These pancakes! They're done to a psychological brown. Their flavor is beyond compare."

RIOT OF COLOR ATTENDS SIMPLICITY IN DESIGN

Even if you don't care for sports you are bound to care for sport clothes this season. The flannel frock, at left, with its simple lines and knowing girldie, is in the popular combination of black and white. The knitted frock has a simple straightline white flannel dress and a jacket of Egyptian design in which reds, blues and greens run riot. Yet the whole effect is by no means flashy.

LETTER FROM PRISCILLA BRADFORD TO MRS. MARY ALDEN PRESCOTT

MY DEAR FRIEND:

As you wished me, I have taken very good care to analyze the young woman who is going to marry your son. Otherwise, I confess, she would not have interested me much. She invited me to the Country Club for tea; you remember I told you about the invitation in my last letter. Mary Alden went with me.

Dear friend, I hope you will forgive me when I tell you that I am very much worried about this marriage.

I could see easily that John and this girl have nothing in common. She is very pretty and conscious of it. She is quite clever and wants you to acknowledge it. She is rather rude and quite proud of it. She is very fond of beautiful clothes; those she was wearing were much too fine for one in John's circumstances—and I hate to tell you this—while we were drinking our tea, she calmly opened a gold cigarette case, lighted and smoked a gold-tipped cigarette which had her monogram on it. To say I was shocked would be putting it mildly. I wanted to ask her if she ever had smoked before John. Surely, Mrs. Prescott, no man would ask a woman to be his wife whom he knew smoked cigarettes, even in these lax days.

While we were at the Country Club, a very good-looking young man came into the dining-room and Leslie's young sister, Alice—who also was smoking—beckoned him over.

One could see that this man was desperately in love with Miss Hamilton. He never took his eyes off her. Poor fool, she must have encouraged him much before she turned a fancy dress party next week, but neither of them saw fit to invite me. Perhaps it is to be so wild that they knew I would not approve.

Dear Mrs. Prescott, I know you will be grieved, if not heartbroken, at this marriage. It is not at all what you would have wished for your beloved son.

Mary Alden sends her love to you and we will both go to the wedding. It is to be a grand affair—a great show of money.

Miss Hamilton is still indulging in an orgy of clothes buying; perhaps this is a good thing, as I learned in a roundabout way that she will go to John with only a modest check from her father—enough perhaps to buy a grand piano, but nothing more.

You had better burn this letter as soon as you read it, for it would get me into dreadful trouble, and only my love for you and interest in John would induce me to be so confidential.

Sincerely yours,
PRISCILLA BRADFORD.

LETTER FROM MRS. MARY ALDEN PRESCOTT TO MISS LESLIE HAMILTON

MY DEAR MISS HAMILTON:

Atlanta Debs Refuse To Put Up Bobbed Hair

Atlanta, Ga.—Don't be too hasty, girls, in deciding to put up your bobbed hair.

You'll find you'll have to cut it anyway, to keep astride with fashion. In fact, you'll have to cut the front down to bangs if you would be up to the minute in hair style.

That's the word Atlanta society leaders have brought back here from the Florida winter resorts.

The wave of banged-bobbed hair has already reached this city and is moving northward and westward with remarkable rapidity.

There are two styles of bangs—the straight, a la Buster Brown, and the curly fringe type. The former seems to have been adopted by the brunets, while the blonds have taken to the curl. And their popularity is growing, despite the "official" ruling against them.

"It's just like the short skirt," says Miss Douglas Paine, pretty Atlanta debutante. "They ruled that out for a few short months, but now it's back and this spring and summer dresses are going to be even shorter than ever."

"Women may like to change styles in dresses and hair arrangements, but when they come to one that's sensible and stylish, too, it takes a deep root and a long time must pass before it goes out of date."

TESTED RECIPES

VARIETY IN SAUCES

By Bertha E. Shapleigh

When Brillat Savarin, French statesman, came to this country in the early part of the nineteenth century he made the observation that in the United States he found many churches but only one sauce, whereas in his own country they had many sauces and but one church. To this day many people know but one sauce—gravy.

A sauce should be smooth, glossy and consistent. No lumps and no watery, thin places in it.

The thickening for sauces is either starch, as flour and cornstarch, or egg yolks. Butter is usually the fat, and in making white or brown sauces, butter and flour are blended together and kept white or allowed to brown, depending on the sauce desired. The liquid is milk, cream or stock made from meat or fish.

A fish sauce is best made from fish stock. For boiled fish sauce use the water in which the fish was cooked as the liquid to be combined with the butter and flour. To fish sauce may be added lemon juice, chopped parsley or pickles, red and green peppers, capers, ketchup, chile sauce, and hard-boiled eggs or raw yolks of eggs.

For brown sauces the best flavor is obtained by cooking the vegetables, especially the onion, in the butter or fat used.

A sauce should be stirred often, and at the end vigorously. It is best strained, no matter how smooth it may seem to be.

A good proportion is two table-spoons (level) of butter and the same of flour to a cup of liquid.

Egg sauces are either hot or cold. If hot, the eggs are combined with butter and some acid and cooked over water. If cold, the egg yolks are blended with salad oil, and the sauce is not cooked. The first is Hollandaise; the second is mayonnaise.

MOTHER! MOVE

CHILD'S BOWELS

"California Fig Syrup" is

Child's Best Laxative

Hurry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well, playful child again. Even if cross, feverish, bilious, constipated or full of cold, children love its "fruity" taste, and mothers can rest easy because it never fails to work all the souring food and nasty bile right out of the stomach and bowels without griping or upsetting the child.

Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." Refuse any imitation.

NARROWER BRACELETS

Narrow bracelets, to be worn above the elbow, are very fashionable with sleeveless frocks. With gowns of the old-fashioned type, girls are wearing black ribbons tied in bows about the wrist.

GREEN LINGERIE

Lingerie in Nile green is very popular now, developed in voile, or grandie, handkerchief linen and silk crepe.

PATCH POCKETS

An imported frock of navy blue rep has large patch pockets of cherry red velvet embroidered in green, black and silver. Otherwise it is untrimmed.

Dr. Marshall & Sandborn will be located over J. T. McCann Co., 844 College Ave., beginning Saturday, March 31st.

VISITING has its own code, and it is a very complicated one, depending upon whom, when, where and why. If one is to undertake all the obligations of a complete social existence, one must master this code in all its details. But, whatever one's estate, there are certain visits he must pay and he should pay them gracefully.

1: A visit of congratulation should be paid to the new mother and a gift always should be presented to the baby.

2: In calling to inquire for the sick, one invariably asks to be received, and it is pleasing to take flowers or books as a gift.

3: One pays a visit of condolence at once, except that a woman does not call on a man, but instead writes him a note of sympathy.

4: When a man relative announces his engagement, one goes immediately to call upon his fiancée.

5: In large cities neighbors seldom call on each other, but in the country and smaller places older residents should call upon newcomers.

Adventures Of The Twins

Little Miss Muffet

The next person Nancy and Nick saw was little Miss Muffet.

But you'd never have believed it was she, for there was no bowl of curds and whey, and no tufted, and much to Nancy's relief, no spider sitting "beside her" either.

"What brought you away up here in the sky?" asked Miss Muffet curiously.

"Didn't you know?" exclaimed Nancy. "Mother Goose has lost her broom and the cobwebs are getting thicker every day. We've come to find it."

"Ugh!" exclaimed Miss Muffet. "I suppose then the spiders will be getting worse, too, and I've troubles enough as it is. But let us talk of something else. What are the fashions now down on the earth where you live?" So few people come up here and I'm afraid I'll get old-fashioned and out of date. Do little girls wear pinafores still? And are poke bonnets so fashionable as they were? And what is the newest shade of yarn for working samplers? And are long curls the style?"

"Pinafores?" Nancy puckered up her brows in a puzzled way. Then suddenly she smiled. "Oh, yes. You've got one on, haven't you? No, little girls wear bloomers and knickerbockers now to play in. And they don't wear hats at all when

"My, it must be a nice world!" sighed Miss Muffet. "I'd like so much to see it! I wonder if I ever shall get away from Mother Goose Land."

Nick nodded comfortably. "Oh, you'll get there sometime. I'm sure," he said. "They're making machines to fly with and it won't be long till they get to the stars."

"I hope so!" said Miss Muffet. "And the first thing I do will be to go shopping."

Don't delay fighting constipation with BRAN that is ALL BRAN!

When constipation flashes its signals of sickness into your eyes and cheeks; into your breath, your brain and your appetite, it is absolutely necessary that you head it off. Toxic poisoning stands close by. Bright's disease and other dangerous diseases await their turn!

The remedy that nature offers is the simplest and most effective—Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbed, which is ALL BRAN! And it is ALL BRAN! It is ALL BRAN you need when you start to fight constipation. You can't afford to delay a minute and you can't afford to use half-way measures with foods that contain a percentage of bran! Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran because it is not only effective, but because it is delicious. Why—you will like its nut-like flavor, which adds so much to any food with which it is served.

Be certain to eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—at least two tablespoons daily; in chronic cases with each meal. Results will prove astounding. Remember that Kellogg's Bran is nature's own regulator, which operates in nature's way—which is the best way!

Eat Kellogg's Bran as a cereal, sprinkled on other hot or cold cereals, or make it up into the best of muffins, pancakes, raisin bread, cookies, macaroons. Kellogg's recipes are printed on each package. Let the children eat Kellogg's Bran. It is wonderfully beneficial. It will improve their health just as it will really and truly make over men and women. The value of Kellogg's Bran cannot be overestimated. Sold universally by grocers.

MOSCOW'S PROSPERITY IS ONLY SUPERFICIAL

By Associated Press
Moscow — The surface comfort which Moscow now shows to foreign visitors, and the prosperity which her native profiteers enjoy, is not reflected in the lives of workmen and the other native residents who make up the bulk of her population. All are living better than last year, but recent statistics of workmen's districts show that instead of the approximately 15 square yards of living space which is the legal allotment for each person, many workmen's families average only one and a half square yard of living space for each person, and that many have to sleep in relays on the basis of one bed for four persons.

In one children's home 80 per cent of the inmates have lived so long on a scanty diet that they have utterly forgotten even the taste of milk, meat and fats. In one district a survey of these homes showed 85 per cent of the children suffering from tuberculosis, or predisposed to that malady because of undernourishment and over-crowding.

Little Chute To Invade City Tonight—Verwey Is High In Singles

The open tournament of the Eagle alleys, conducted by Manager Currie, will come to a close Saturday night with heavy bowling scheduled for Friday night and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Although it is hardly probable that the doubles leaders, Barney Welhouse and Kirk Koletzke and their 1,300 score will be topped, there's plenty of room in the singles division for high marks.

B. Welhouse-K. Koletzke, 1,300.
D. Verwey-G. Buboltz, 1,284.

Miss Dunn Is Given Honor For High Game

Miss Ellen Dunn, captain of the P. O. E. Girls team and possibly the best woman bowler in the country, was honored by the Wisconsin Women's Bowling association this week with the receipt of a special prize for her high single game score of 220 in the state tournament recently in Milwaukee.

Miss Dunn plans to go to the national women's tournament in St. Louis on April 16, 17 and 18. She will take part in the national classic as a member of the Oshkosh Blouin quintet, which took second place at the state tourney. Another Appleton bowler, Mrs. Al Jones will also bowl at the national tourney as a member of a different Oshkosh squad.

SPORT FLASHES

Cannes—Mrs. Molla Bjursede Malmgren ended her four week tennis campaign disastrously when she was defeated by the comparatively unknown Italian, Vlasco 8-6, 9-7.

New York—Jack McAuliffe, Detroit bowler, was chosen to represent the United States at the Willard Johnson card at the Yankee stadium, May 12.

Pinehurst—Walter Hagen, British golf champion, distanced the field 2-60 contestants in the north and south open title play with a card of 69 for the first 36 holes.

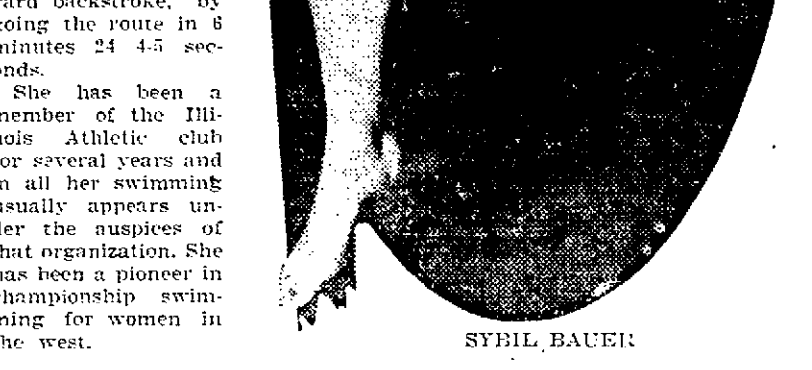

Wants Athletic Program For Girls In 'Big Ten' Schools

Evanston—Miss Sybil Bauer, famous swimming star, now appears in a new role. She is striving to obtain a full-fledged, competitive athletic program of all sports for girls of the "Big Ten" universities.

She is now a freshman at Northwestern University and already has taken the leading place among her classmates in things athletic.

Within a year sports lovers may expect to see big things being done by college women in the sports field, she predicts.

She has been a member of the Illinois Athletic club for several years and in all her swimming usually appears under the auspices of that organization. She has been a pioneer in championship swimming for women in the west.

Curve Ball Wins For Young Maple Smasher Of Olympic Team—Weisgerber Of Imperials Has Highest Single Game

George Retson, member of the Olympic team, will get the main slice of cash for holding down the highest average in the Appleton City Bowling league, according to the final list of standings issued Friday by John Wissman, league treasurer.

Retson, who came in about the middle of the season, took the lead after a month of bowling. His final average for 33 games is 185. The Olympic pin smasher uses a pretty curve ball.

WISSMAN FOOT LIST
F. Felt, member of Hopple's Weiners with an average of 182 for 60 games is second on the list while another Hopple's Weiner, Herman Strutz is third on the list with 181 pins.

AMBROSE WEISGERBER, member of the Elks Imperials, shot the highest single game of the year, which was 248. Fries was a close second for this honor with 247 marks.

MAY ROLL SUNDAY
Due to the dispute over the tie game on the Elks Imperials and Hoffman Construction Co.'s record, announcement of team winners is being held back. It is likely that the game will be rolled off Sunday.

Table with 5 columns: Name, Games, Pins, Ave., and a small column for additional info. It lists bowling scores for various players.

Drs. Marshall and Sandborn will be located over J. T. McCann Co., 844 College Ave., beginning Saturday, March 31st.

DONAHUE CLASSED WITH MATTY AS GREATEST PITCHER

Joe Tinker Gives His Opinion On Cincinnati Pitching Star

Orlando, Fla.—"The greatest pitcher that has broken into the National League since the days of Mathewson."

The nearest replica to "Big Six" I ever expect to see. He reminds me of Matty every time I see him wind up. There is ease and grace in every motion.

The remarkable thing about that fellow is that he stepped right from the college diamond to the big league, a finished pitcher.

Pete Donahue is the youngster who joined the Reds several years ago direct from Christian Brothers college in Texas and won fame overnight.

Donahue is expected to carry much of the Cincinnati pitching burden this year. He is a trifle heavier than last year, which is good news to Manager Moran, who would like to add even 15 pounds more to his star pitcher's weight, well realizing that Donahue has a busy season ahead of him.

Crowd Too Much For Little Chute Boy Ivory Artist

"Too much audience" proved the undoing of Harry Vanderson, the Little Chute "boy wonder" pocket billiardist, when he attempted to whip Henry Liethen, Appleton's cue man, in a 100 point challenge match in the Carr & Hansen billiard room Thursday night.

Liethen won the contest 100 to 47 with Vanderson not giving the expected result. Vanderson earned the right to Thursday's match as the result of his brilliant showing a week ago in the match with the team of Selig and La Fond. Vanderson was then a team mate of Hartjes. Another Little Chute cue wizard, The Appleton team lost.

In the performance Thursday night Vanderson did not get a chance to demonstrate his real ability. Liethen proved his master and Vanderson admitted after the tilt that the "crowd was just a bit too much" for him. It is likely that Vanderson will get another chance to demonstrate his skill.

As the result of the victory Liethen is now subject to a challenge from any player in the Fox River valley.

Angling And Shooting Club Plans Busy Season

Four Registered Shoots Will Be Held—First Practice To Take Place Sunday, May 6—Introduce Juvenile Squad

The Appleton Angling and Shooting club is planning a busy season for the coming summer. Though it's nearly a month away for the first shoot a number of the marksmen are already cleaning their rifles and making other preparations, reports have it.

The first practice shoot on the club's grounds, Lake-ard, will take place the first Sunday in May. Four registered shoots are planned according to G. L. Chamberlain, secretary-treasurer of the club. The first shoot will take place Sunday, May 27. The others will be on July 1, Aug. 12 and Sept. 3.

Something new will be introduced by the gun club with the organization of a juvenile squad, composed of younger sporting element, who have never before participated in regular shooting events. Among those signed for the squad are Francis and Edwin Volz and John Bonini.

The gun club expects some keen rivalry for the organization's honors. Though Roy Babcock, Neenah, is regarded as the chief crack marksman there are several other members who are close on the heels of the Twin City man. Charles Stribley, Kaukauna and Karl Stansbury, Appleton, are said to be prepared to give Babcock some keen competition.

SCHOOL HEAD PLAYS MARBLES WITH BOYS

Gallatin, Mo.—Marble playing has been adopted as a major sport in the public schools here.

L. M. Hosman, superintendent of schools, who himself knuckled down with the youngsters every day before school and during recesses, coaches the sport, which he declares has increased the efficiency of his pupils 50 per cent.

Hosman not only encourages the game, but gives demonstrations on how to carry the marbles without dropping them on the floor during school hours.

Hosman also encourages the spirit of fair play. When a youngster has had a streak of bad luck, he stakes him to a fresh supply of marbles.

DOGS GUARD ART
Boston—Two giant police dogs nightly guard the treasures of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. Trained to refuse to accompany anyone but the watchman who has charge of them, they are led at intervals each night through the darkened galleries.

Employees are cautioned against remaining in the building after hours because of the danger of attack by the powerful animals. An official of the museum who stayed until well into the evening recently was saved from the dogs only by the quick intervention of the watchman.
